

FSP: Functional Service Provider Model

FSP Overview

FSP partnerships have been gaining traction in recent years because of their potential for increasing efficiency in outsourcing without compromising quality. At Rho, we have been supporting sponsors in this model since before it had an acronym. We understand the common hurdles in this model and how to avoid them. We have implemented a number of FSP models and can reduce your timelines and costs without compromising scientific integrity or quality. We know how to make FSP work.

Offerings

Rho offers FSP model services in the following areas:

- Biostatistics and statistical programming
- Data standards and CDISC
- Data management
- Regulatory and medical writing

BENEFITS

- AN EXTENSION OF YOUR TEAM:
Work with a consistent team that understands your systems, your processes, and your expectations.
- FLEXIBILITY & SCALABILITY:
Our FSP model provides an easy and flexible way to scale up and avoid the expense of underutilized resources.
